Class of 2013

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The significance of the academic costume is determined especially by the sleeves and hoods.

Doctors wear the round bell sleeve; the gown is faced down the front and barred on the sleeves with black velvet or color indicating the degree; the doctor's hood is large. The doctor may choose to wear the gold tassel on the cap.

Masters wear the long, closed sleeve, with a slit near the upper part of the arm; the master's hood is of more moderate size.

Bachelors wear the long or pointed sleeve. The color of the tassel indicates whether the degree is in the field of arts (white), fine arts (brown), music (pink), or science (golden yellow).

Commencement Speaker

Elder Lowell Tom Perry, the oldest living Apostle of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, was called to the Quorum of the Twelve on April 6, 1974. Despite his age—currently in his 91st year—Elder Perry maintains an energy at the pulpit that is felt throughout the world.

As Lee Perry recalls from his father's 80th birthday celebration, "At the dinner table he turned to Barbara [his wife] and said, 'Now that I've turned 80, I think the time has come that we have to act like we're 65.'" Elder Perry has always lived as if he were 15 years younger.

His vivacity began early. Having committed himself to perfect Church attendance, the young Tom Perry wouldn't let anything—even tonsillitis—get in his way. On one Sunday his family left him home to convalesce. To their surprise, minutes after the meeting began he dutifully walked into the chapel.

As a young man, Elder Perry attended college, served as a full-time missionary in the Northern States Mission, and enlisted for duty in the United States Marine Corps, where he was part of the American occupation troops in Japan at the end of World War II. It was there that he touched hearts by leading a group of servicemen in rebuilding a Protestant chapel in Nagasaki.

Elder Perry married his first wife, Virginia Lee, in the Logan Utah Temple in 1947. Together they had three children: Barbara, Lee, and Gay. Shortly after his call to the Twelve, Virginia passed away. He later married Barbara Dayton in 1976.

After graduating from Utah State Agricultural College in finance in 1949,

Elder Perry spent his professional career in the retail business, serving as vice president and treasurer of companies located in Idaho, California, New York, and Massachusetts (where he also served as a stake president).

While working on the board of directors for American Stores, Elder Perry struck up a keen relationship with L. Sam Skaggs, who later generously funded the BYU library's L. Tom Perry Special Collections to honor his inspiring friend.

Lee Perry jests about the bequest honoring his father: "His mother used to actually pay him to go to the library to check out books. . . . She would turn over in her grave if she knew there was a library named after him!"

In reality Elder Perry epitomizes how education can empower a person to give remarkable service to mankind. "The acquisition of knowledge," he says, "is a fundamental part of the Lord's eternal plan for His children."

We are honored to have this beloved Apostle, a witness of our Savior, here today at our commencement services.

Candidates for Advanced Degrees
Class of 2013

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The significance of the academic costume is determined especially by the sleeves and hoods.

Doctors wear the round bell sleeve; the gown is faced down the front and barred on the sleeves with black velvet or color indicating the degree; the doctor's hood is large. The doctor may choose to wear the gold tassel on the cap.

Masters wear the long, closed sleeve, with a slit near the upper part of the arm; the master's hood is of more moderate size.

Bachelors wear the long or pointed sleeve. The color of the tassel indicates whether the degree is in the field of arts (white), fine arts (brown), music (pink), or science (golden yellow).

Commencement Speaker

Ronald A. Rasband

During His earthly ministry the Savior reached out to the one: a child, a leper, an aggrieved father, an afflicted woman. And He charged His apostles and prophets to do the same. Such personalization seems daunting today as members of the First Presidency and Quorum of the Twelve—Christ's representatives on the earth—attend to an ever-expanding worldwide Church. Who, then, can they call on to assist? The revelatory answer given is to "call upon the Seventy . . . instead of any others" (Doctrine and Covenants 107:38).

As the Senior President of the Quorums of the Seventy, Elder Ronald A. Rasband has become a key attendant, tasked with leading and organizing the Seventy to assist the Twelve in propagating the gospel and managing the Church throughout the world.

From his early childhood it seems Elder Rasband has been prepared "for such a time as this" (Esther 4:14). He grew up with kindhearted parents and friends in a humble home in Salt Lake Valley's Cottonwood neighborhood. A sixth-generation member of the Church, the young Ron Rasband hadn't ventured to the outside world until his service from 1970 to 1972 in the Eastern States Mission, which he termed a "rough and tough" place. He then returned home to study business at the University of Utah, funding his own schooling.

At school he caught the eye of the beautiful Melanie Twitchell, and they became good friends. After a time they decided, according to Sister Rasband, to "go out together because we were such great friends." Their marriage has been blessed with five children and twenty-two grandchildren.

During his senior year at the university Ronald Rasband was befriended by the high councilor assigned to their young marrieds ward—one Jon Huntsman Sr. The successful businessman proffered his surprised young friend a position as a salesman in Ohio, eight months before graduation.

A bit of a homebody, Ronald Rasband reluctantly discussed the offer with his wife, who encouraged him to be adventurous, saying, "I'll let you call your mother every day!" So he accepted the job. It was just eleven years later that he became president and chief operating officer of Huntsman Chemical Corporation.

His gift for leadership has also manifested itself in the Church. Before his call to the Seventy in 2000, Elder Rasband held numerous Church positions, including Temple Square missionary guide, bishop, member of the Church's Sesquicentennial Committee, and president of the New York New York North Mission.

Responding to the example of the Savior, Elder Rasband has spent his life ministering to the one, such as finding a way to consistently supply a specialized protein mixture to help a desperate young boy afflicted by PKU (phenylketonuria)—half a world away.

It is an honor to have Elder Ronald A. Rasband, Senior President of the Quorums of the Seventy and an especial witness and minister of Christ, at our commencement exercises today.
